

Domain: CINEMATOGRAPHY AND MEDIA

Master: Digital Interactive Arts - English [Arte Digitale Interactive]

Accredited by the Minister of Education, Bologna system, Full time studies, 4 semesters

THE EXAM WILL BE HELD IN ENGLISH

Specialization description: The master program is aimed at graduates who own a bachelor degree in Cinematography, Photography, Media, Visual Arts, Architecture, Music, Acting, Performing and graduates from other related fields, which are interested in the theoretical and practical interdisciplinary approaches towards the new digital technologies used in the fields of performative arts, visual arts and cinematography. Under the coordination of different specialists from Romania or from abroad, the students will produce, each semester, artistic interactive projects, while collaborating with the students from the other master programs – the performing arts program and the documentary filmmaking program.

The theoretical classes and the practical projects will contribute to a comprehensive understanding of the most important artistic movements and developments from the domain of interactive arts in the context of the new media platforms and they will also develop abilities of expressing themselves as transdisciplinary artists in a professional context. By the end of the program, each student will prepare an individual interdisciplinary project, representing their dissertation exam.

ADMISSION

Oral task: Interview, in English, based on an individual artistic project that was described, written and included in the admission file. This artistic project is meant to prove the interest for using interactive technologies in the process of artistic creation.

The argument backing up the project has to demonstrate the capacity of the candidate to manage and make happen a project of artistic creation, but also the openness to transdisciplinary approaches. The interview will also test general knowledge from the domain.

The project, that was written and will be argued verbally, will be also accompanied by a portfolio of artistic realizations, either connected with the proposed project, either from previous project.

The registration will be considered final only after the confirmation of receiving of both the project and the portfolio.
